

GRANDE

Mediano

y

PEQUEÑO

Alice Brière-Haquet
y Célia Chauffrey

Esta es la historia
de tres amigos,
Grande, Mediano y Pequeño.

The illustration depicts a scene on a mosaic floor. On the left, a small child with a white headband with black spots, a dark green coat with yellow polka dots, and orange shoes stands with arms outstretched. On the right, a large, blue, lace-up shoe with white laces is shown from a side profile, as if it has just stepped onto the mosaic. A small orange ball is positioned between the child and the shoe. The background is a textured, reddish-brown wall with two white, stylized butterfly-like shapes flying in the air. The mosaic floor consists of concentric semi-circular patterns of grey and white tiles.

— El primero, Pequeño, que es muy pero que muy pequeñín.

Mediano que, la verdad, ni es
grande ni es pequeño.

GRande es todo lo contrario,
es inmenso, como es de esperar.

